

Democracy taught throughout curriculum e.g. Ancient Greece	Workshops delivered by our local PSCO and fire service.	E-Safety updated and shared with Govs and children	Inspirational people embedded throughout the curriculum from diverse backgrounds	British Value links embedded into the Well project	Weekly Praise Assembly to celebrate the children's achievements
Equality objectives updated September 2021	Suggestion boxes across school for School Council and Eco school	Dinners linked to Religious celebrations e.g. Chinese New Year	School Values: Ready, Respectful and Safe	British Values links highlighted in curriculum lessons	Sporting competitions which fosters sportsmanship
British Values display in KS2 used to build on values covered over the year	Pupil voice questionnaires given to children to share their opinions	 British Values at Fallings Park Primary School		Respect and tolerance embedded throughout PSHE and RE curriculum	In News Lessons in RSHE to keep up with current affairs
Recognition board highlights schools values and create a sense of belonging	Parent voice collected on a range of topical issues	British Values statement published to website	Democracy where pupils are involved in employing new staff	Democracy highlighted through School Council Elections	Charity days over the school year to support the community
Weekly assembly themes focus around British Values	Children are able share their curriculum learning with other year groups.	Class Promise is linked to our school values and personalised to year group	Children have classroom responsibilities throughout the year	Restorative behaviour policy allows children to make their own choices	Children celebrate religious festivals over the year
Children have access to sign up to a range of out of hours activities	A range of library books that reflects the school community	Workshops delivered by our local PSCO and fire service.	Elected Eco Representatives for each class	Children are encouraged to express their views	Visits to places of worship