

RE whole-school display to share learning and understanding in central hall.	Pupil voice to share own religious and cultural beliefs.	RE is diverse and many religions and worldviews are studied.	Links to our school value: Respect.	Religious links to RSHEe and the acceptance of diversity.	Expression of identity and belonging.
Dinners linked to Religious celebrations e.g. Chinese New Year.	End of day prayer for daily worship.	Exploration of religious artefacts.	Learning is creative; with religious music, dance and art opportunities provided.	A range of library books that reflect the RE curriculum.	Children celebrate religious festivals over the year.
Religious themed assemblies.	Workshops delivered by religious experts.	 <h2 style="text-align: center;">RE at Fallings Park Primary School</h2>		British Values links highlighted in RE lessons.	Respect and tolerance embedded throughout RE curriculum.
Drawing on staff and pupils own experiences.	Religious cooking and food tasting.	Visits to places of worship.	Children are encouraged to express their views.	Inspirational people embedded throughout the curriculum from diverse backgrounds.	Charity days over the school year to support the community.
Discussions of spiritual feelings and concepts e.g., praise, thanks, and joy.	Thoughtful and respectful discussions about religion and world views.	Christmas and Easter celebration performances by children.	Exploration of cultural dress and clothing.	Ideas of right and wrong.	Understanding a range of religious vocabulary.