

RSHEe taught through the Wolverhampton wide, WELL programme	Relationships and Sex Education taught sensitively and in consultation with Parents	Rainbow Award achieved for school commitment to Well Being and Health	Floor books used to showcase pupil work Key vocabulary taught in all lessons	British values embedded through the curriculum and direct links made with WELL lessons.	Opportunities for pupils to act as school councillors and eco representatives	Half termly 'In the News' sessions taught, to reflect learning in the community and wider world
Pupil Personal Development and Cultural Capital showcased in Year Group Evidence Journals	Ethos 'Learning Today for Tomorrow's Success' embedded across school	Local PCSO attends school to talk about Internet Safety and how to stay safe outside of school	Working towards 'Rights Respecting Schools Award' to embed our learning of British Values and our rights as children and humans	Our 'Ready, Respectful and Safe' ethos embedded across school	Opportunities to access out of hours activities including mindfulness and craft	High importance given to looking after both mental and physical health, through assemblies and WELL sessions
Fluid WELL sessions used to pick up on issues arising in class/school	Cultural Capital opportunities contributed to by both pupils and parents	 What does RSHE look like at Fallings Park Primary School?		Personal Development progressive steps contributed to by both pupils and parents	Project Evolve used to teach online safety	Staff and pupils prioritise inclusivity across the curriculum
Transition visits to secondary school, for Year 6 pupils	Dedicated Wellbeing Focus Weeks, linked to quality texts	Enrichment: Antibullying Week (annually) Enrichment: Mental Health Week (annually)	Parents are invited to celebrate their children's achievements through weekly Awards Assemblies	RSHE policy in place and followed by all staff.	Lola- Therapy dog. Visits school weekly to develop communication, interaction and safeguarding	Partnership with Wolves Foundation, helps to develop Health and Wellbeing
Programme of chosen charity days- to develop knowledge of the wider world and local community	embedded across school- helping to improve mental health	Outdoor Learning: embedded across school- helping to improve mental health	Training given to all members of staff by Nature Friendly Schools	Partnership with Community Road Safety Officers to develop life skills	Year 3 'Bikeability' offered to develop life skills	Opportunities for pupils to take part in residential to develop life skills
Pupils have the opportunity to learn to swim from Year 2	Targeted intervention for specific groups of pupils	All staff trained as Wellbeing and Emotional Literacy Leaders	Dedicated RSHE lead team – work across school	Positive notes and phone calls home, promote pupils' self-esteem	WELL ambassadors identified in each class	Parents encouraged to take an active role in their child's Learn Today curriculum